THOMAS M. GOULD
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
W/D OF TN, MEMPHIS

Comes now the defendant, Wayne P. Edmondson, through his counsel of record, Samuel L. Perkins, and respectfully moves the court to be allowed additional time to report to the designated institution to serve his sentence.

The defendant would show that he was sentenced on March 18, 2005, to twenty-one (21) months imprisonment, following his guilty plea on December 13, 2004, for unlawful sale of firearms. At the sentencing hearing, the court permitted the defendant to remain on bond and report on his own to the designated facility when notified. The defendant filed his notice of appeal on March 25, 2005.

The notice of prisoner designation was filed on June 21, 2005, and on June 23, the court entered an order of surrender requiring the defendant to report to the United States

Penitentiary at McCleary, 330 Federal Way, Pine Knot, Kentucky by 2:00 p.m. on July 15, 2005.

The defendant lives in Bushnell, Florida, which is a considerable distance from the Kentucky facility. He is in the process of transferring numerous articles of personal property from his home to Spartanburg, South Carolina, where he has relatives who have agreed to take care of this property during his time of incarceration. He lives alone, and has been burglarized in the past and has suffered great loss as a result. He feels that this transfer is necessary in order to protect his property. Because his funds are limited to a modest V.A pension, it has taken him quite a while to make the proper arrangements to have the property sent to South Carolina.

As a further reason for the delay in reporting, the defendant would show that he has been assigned to a primary care provider, Barbara Allheit, at the Nashville, Tennessee, V.A. Hospital. He is presently waiting on prescriptions which are needed to treat numerous physical problems.

Based upon the foregoing, the defendant would respectfully request that he be given an additional ninety (90) days, or until October 10, 2005, to report to the institution designated by this court.

Respectfully submitted,
